May Hire Aide to Step Up Enforcement

Some Hotels Said To Violate Ban Only During Peak

City Council yesterday took preliminary steps toward better enforcement of the present sign ordinance in the face of what they consider too many variances and violations, and agreed to study the hiring of an additional inspector whose prime assignment would be signs.

Many signs are erected, or pasted up, without permits, during the rush period of the season, perhaps for two months. After the rush the signs are taken down, frequently before the city can begin prosecution under the law.

Council, at their regular information meeting, discussed the possibility of hiring a junior building inspector whose first function would be to keep a close surveillance of signs not conforming to regulations of the present ordinance. They also asked that a study be made to determine the legitimacy of variances granted regarding all non-conforming signs.

Though many of the variances are results of consideration by a board comprised for that purpose, many signs were up before the sign ordinance was passed.

Council feels that a study should be made so that enforcement can be controlled.

Mafazine racks on sidewalks in the way of pedestrians, furniture displayed outside stores for sale, and very-large post card racks were among the items asked to be included in the study.

THE COYOTE SINGS GRAND OPERA

You see about seven years ago Madame Bellows moved into a desert cabin up near the Accordion Mountains. She was lonesome so one day I took her a baby Coyote I had dug out, telling her it would only be a pet about six months, and after that she better get rid of it.

She didn't get rid of it in six months. For two years she sang to that coyote night and day, and that coyote got to singing with her. It was grand opera they sang. I would watch them as they sang, the Madam's chest heaving as she sent that coyote song mixed with grand opera ricocheting through the Accordion Mountains—"real nervous it was"—you could not tell one voice from the other.

We laid Madame to rest under a tearful desert willow at the oasis a year ago—but the coyote sings each night from the shadows of the palms... some nights... when the echo is clear... it sounds like a duet.

No Trans-U.S. Airline Verdict Seen for a Year

At least a year will pass before the Civil Aeronautics Board hands down final decision on airline service for Palm Springs on a coast-to-coast basis, city manager R. W. Peterson told city council yesterday.

The initial hearing starts in Phoenix May 1. Civic representatives from the village will testify then. Statistical reports will follow the civic hearings.

H. C. Timberlake, a Wisconsin statistician hired by the city to prepare figures on present and future needs for airline service, will be the chief witness in the second portion of the CAB investigation.

The Timberlake report delves into population-based needs, both permanent and tourist, where travellers come from, and similar data.

He has been working nearly a year on the report. Phoenix has asked that it be placed on a cross-country route as a stop for some airlines, and that Palm Springs be included in the routing. Palm Springs has joined in the Phoenix request.

Court Stays Pupils Transfer

Superior Court Judge Russell Waite has issued a temporary injunction and ordered the Palm Springs Board of Education to show cause why the transfer of a pupil from Cahulla school to Frances Stevens should not be set aside.

The girl, Linda Spencer, now attending the second grade at Cahulla school, was ordered by the board of education to attend the school in which zone her parents live (Frances Stevens school zone), even though her parents claim that she is living with her grandmother in the Cahulla school zone.

The board has had a policy in effect for a number of years requiring that a child attend the school in the zone in which he or she lives.

The court issued the temporary injunction keeping the girl in the Cahulla school, and set the date for the "show cause" hearing for Friday, March 23, before Judge Waite.

Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Spencer of 490 North Marcus Road.

Barnes Okayed as Circuit Judge

WASHINGTON — The Senate today confirmed without debate the nomination of Stanley N. Barnes, Los Angeles, as a federal circuit judge for the Ninth Circuit on the West Coast.

Barnes now is assistant attorney general in charge of the Anti-Trust Division.

System Installed to Head Off Fraud Artists

Police Chief Gus Kettmann, in cooperation with Palm Springs merchants, is installing a bad-check alerting system that had been in operation during his previous term in office.

Shoplifters, bad check artists, short-changers, and known defrauders are the targets of the system.

It is set up on six levels, so that suspects attacking one category of business would not alert the entire system. If a short-changer preyed on markets, there would be no apparent reason for alerting the bar owners, department stores, hotels, gift shops, and other categories.

There will be about 15 members in each group. One will be the key person. Each will have a form and when a suspect is spotted, the descriptive form will be filled out, the police notified, and the key person notified, who in turn will notify three or four in his group.

Those notified will call three or four more, previously designated.

Student in Court Twice in 2 Days

Robert E. Gately, 18, a Riverside student, will face Justice Court arraignment on a charge of burglary this afternoon, making his second appearance before Judge Eugene Theriault in as many days.

Yesterday, Gately and William R. Metzger, 18, also a student from Riverside, pleaded guilty to petty theft charges and received sentences of $50 or 10 days. Metzger's father paid his fine last night.

During questioning, Gately admitted that he burglarized the Foursquare Church on Vella off Ramon Road, took about $17 from the poorbox.

Given 60 Days on Vehicle Plea

Melburn Benny Mortensen, 35, yesterday was sentenced to 60 days in county jail after he pleaded guilty to a charge of taking a vehicle without the owner's permission.

Judge Eugene Theriault accepted the plea, reduced from a grand theft allegation, when it was found that Mortensen, returned Saturday from the San Francisco area by Palm Springs officers, had made arrangements to take over payments for a truck from a local gardener.

The complainant, Albert Moser, 410 North Calle Santa Rosa, told officers that he had agreed to acquire the truck for Mortensen if he would make the payments. A month after Mortensen allegedly got the truck, he took it to Pinole, California, leaving a $110 room and board bill.

4 Marines from Twentynine Palms Held Here on Suspicion of Burglary

Four marines from Twentynine Palms are being held by Palm Springs police on suspicion of burglary, pending further investigation.

They were arrested by Officer Matt Calac early this morning, hours before official report of burglary of a radio, several bottles of liquor and a pair of scissors was made by Herman Silver, 326 North Palm Canyon Drive.

Investigation started about 11:18 p.m. following a report by Warren Heath, city fire marshal, that he had seen three men leave in a car after running out of an alley. One was carrying a radio, he said. He obtained a description of the car, but lost it in a chase.

Owner of Watch Lost Here Year Ago is Identified

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Simmonds, vacationing at 1062 Buena Vista from Highland Park, Illinois, were told yesterday that the $1500 lady's wrist watch they had reported missing last year while they were staying at El Mirador Hotel has been discovered as theirs, and has been in police custody nearly all that time.

While investigating numerous jewelry thefts last year, Sgt. Bob White learned the watch had been found March 25, 1955, by a bellboy there. He had given it to a receptionist, and she turned it over to White a month later.

He issued bulletins, and checked with all insurance adjusters in Palm Springs, but was unable to identify its owner.

He sent Cartier's in New York, maker of the watch, a description and its serial number. He waited to no avail.

A month ago, the last of the leads proved fruitless, and he sent the watch to Cartier's, asking that jewelry marks be examined in hopes of finding its owner.

The marks showed nothing, but they were recorded, and sent to their Paris branch. The owner was named as Mr. and Mrs. Simmonds, and a letter was sent to Illinois.

It reached them in Palm Springs.

The watch will be forwarded when White sends Cartier's, in New York, notification that the Simmonds are here, vacationing as they were last year.

Two Face Petty Theft Charges

Two young men from the Los Angeles area, one an admitted frequent visitor to the Village, told yesterday will face Justice Court arraignment on petty theft charges, following their arrest at the north end of town Sunday night and the discovery of stolen property in their car.

Police said the pair, Robert Farr, 27, Los Angeles, and Richard Darmiento, 22, Hollywood, were found outside their car parked on San Rafael Road. A search of the area disclosed a polaroid camera and an electric razor, one in the car, and one on the ground beside it. They later admitted taking the goods from a car parked in the Doll House lot Saturday.

One told the other that they shouldn't have taken it, and they hid it that night near where they were found the next day. Later one went up and retrieved the property without telling the other, and when they were apprehended, one was searching for the two articles that had been removed by the other.

Woman, Man Dragged by Car, Sought by Police

Police are searching for a man and woman in a blue 1953 Chevrolet coupe who yesterday left together in the car after the woman had driven nearly a block with the man hanging on the door handle.

The pair, last seen heading north on Indian Avenue, were not immediately chased by police who arrived at Indian and Andreas Roads to answer a witness's call, because other accident victims were admitted for emergency treatment at Desert Hospital, and presumed to be there.

The witness said the woman had driven out of the east parking lot between Tahquitz and Andreas Roads on Indian, and the man had grabbed the right door handle. The woman drove for about a block, dragging the man, until he fell.

The victim lay in the street for a minute or two, police learned, and then stood up and got into the car. He was covered with dirt, his clothes ripped, and apparently in need of medical attention.

A call saying that two patients were being admitted at Desert Hospital heard by the investigating officers halted a lookout for the car, and sent the officers to the emergency ward.

There they found the victims of a minor-injury traffic collision, but not the man and woman. A new search failed to disclose the whereabouts of the couple.

The patients treated were Floyd McMahon, 23, of British Columbia, and Felix Kuvala, 56, of White-water. McMahon suffered two fractured ribs, Kuvala, cuts and bruises. They were released after treatment.

Longer Police Training Urged

Police Chief Gus Kettmann's recommendation that policemen serve a year's probationary period instead of the present six-month term, was forwarded to city council for discussion yesterday.

More varied assignments and longer training and supervision than allowed by the present term, is required for higher-class personnel, city manager R. W. Peterson told the group.

He said Berkeley has a three-year policeman-fireman probation period, as an extreme and recommended that Palm Springs adopt a one-year term for both policemen and firemen.

200 Reservations Made for GOP Fete Tomorrow

More than 200 reservations have been received for the Republican fund-raising dinner Wednesday night at El Mirador Hotel, Mrs. Frank Bennett, general chairman, reported today.

Last minute reservations for the $50-a-plate dinner may be made by calling Mrs. Bennett at 2010 or Ed McCoubrey at 5122.

Dan Thornton, former governor of Colorado, will be principal speaker, with George Murphy as master of ceremonies. Other speakers will be A. Ronald Butson, California national committeeman, Reed Benson, member of the Riverside County Central Republican Committee.

Hostesses for the dinner, as announced today by Mrs. Bennett, will be Mrs. James Ashman, Mrs. Edward Canby, Mrs. Ray Corliss, Mrs. Charles Farrell, Mrs. Mary Hurrell and Mrs. Ralph Shelby.

Visitors Here Sought for Urgent Message

Police have been instructed to be on the lookout for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Perry, of Bakersfield, who are expected to arrive for a visit here.

5 Gunboats Repelled in Hour Duel

Nationalists Claim Communists Fired 114 Rounds At Isle

TAIPEI, Formosa — Five large Communist gunboats were repelled in an attempt to invade the Matsu Islands tonight, the Nationalist Defense Ministry announced.

A communique said the Reds were repulsed by Nationalist gunners after a fierce one-hour artillery duel.

The announcement said Red guns at Huangchi fired 114 rounds at Matsu during the engagement. Earlier this morning, Matsu underwent a one-hour air alert as four unidentified planes approached the offshore island.

Meanwhile, Red guns on Amoy fired 45 rounds tonight at Quemoy Island to the south.

Minnesota Vote Brisk in Vital Primary Test

MINNEAPOLIS — Bright, sunny skies boosted hopes of a large vote today when Adlai E. Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver clashed in their first head-on test of strength in the Minnesota presidential primary.

Voting got off to a fairly good start around the state when polls opened at 7 a.m. By mid-morning early reports indicated that voting was running average to good over most of the state, with some places reporting "lagging" and others reporting "up to one-third more than by the same time in 1952."

Kefauver said he would be satisfied with 55 per cent of the vote and would consider a 60 per cent vote decisive. Kefauver predicted he would get more than 30 per cent of the vote and might score a major upset.

Byerly Starts Repair of Toys for Christmas

Most people aren't thinking about preparations for next Christmas these days, but Bob Byerly, is. Byerly is hard at work repairing toys which the Community Chest sponsored Welfare and Friendly Aid Association will distribute for Christmas.

He paused just long enough in his work the other day to say that he wished to thank the stores which have donated their broken toys to this cause.

Contributions of such toys from merchants are always gratefully received, as are those from individuals. Those wishing to donate should call Byerly, phone 6095, or Mrs. E. K. Woods, phone 6550, toy chairman for the Welfare and Friendly Aid Association.

Phone Company Sells Stock to Four Investors

California Water and Telephone Company has placed directly with institutional investors 80,000 shares of $1.24 preferred stock, $25 par value, to help finance the company's 1956 construction program of $12 million, President Chester H. Loveland reported this week.

Purchasers of the issue were: New York Life Insurance Company 25,000 shares; Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York 20,000 shares; Investors Mutual, Inc., 20,000 shares, and Modern Woodman of America 6,000 shares.

The company serves Palm Springs and other communities in Riverside county, the Monterey Peninsula, and parts of San Bernardino and Los Angeles counties, and parts of the San Diego Bay area.

Reich, Blackstone Win Gold Cups in B of A Contest

Two Palm Springs High school students, Kenneth Reich and Richard Blackstone, are winners of engraved gold cups in the first round of Bank of America's 1956 Achievement Awards program—the first step in the bank's search to find 180 seniors in Southern California who will divide $22,100 in cash awards.

In addition, eight students were awarded certificates denoting excellence in general fields. They are: Carol Ann Saindon, laboratory science; Kent William Werges, music; Kay Marian Sakofsky, art; Marvin Philip Yager, social science; Barbara Jean Rosin, foreign languages; Mavis Markin, business; Lloyd Brubaker, trade and industry; Reich, mathematics, and Blackstone, English.

The awards are designed to bring public recognition and encouragement for scholarship, leadership and promise of future service to society. In addition to cash awards, 575 students will win gold cups, and 1,700 will receive certificates of achievement in Southern California.

Most of the cup winners will compete against cup winners from other high schools in this year's late next month, before a judging panel of civic leaders, who will select winners after hearing in group discussions of their studies as related to important topics of our times.

The Shopping Center Era

Rapid growth of suburban areas brought on by the almost universal use of automobiles has developed a revolutionary merchandising idea that has swept the nation. It is the shopping center, which started out as a group of small shops clustered around a big food market with lots of parking space — and has grown to huge proportions. They now comprise practically every type of merchandise used in the average home and countless services.

There are over 1,000 of the super shopping centers in the United States and double that number under construction or in the planning stage. Thousands of smaller ones are grouped about the fringes of cities small and large the country over. The shopping center boom started on the West Coast—and in Florida—and has now spread to every section of the nation. Vast housing projects built during the past decade have stepped up the rate of growth of suburban areas to four times that of the country as a whole. It is estimated that 60 per cent of the population now resides in suburban areas.

Many of the immense new shopping centers are built on 100 acre tracts and have over 1,000,000 feet of store space. The average runs from 15 to 50 acres in size. The big ones, of course, are located near the big metropolitan cities. Allied Stores, one of the big chains, has under way a $300,000,000 expansion program of integrated shopping centers, including one in New Jersey that will boast 100 stores.

Macy's gigantic is the Garden Center in New Jersey which comprises 150 acres and 1,500,000 feet of floor space. Gimbel Brothers just recently opened a big one at Yonkers and has another under way on Long Island known as Green Acres. Hudson's of Detroit developed the 165-acre Northland shopping center 10 miles from downtown and is planning two more. Northland, by the way, has a 65-acre parking lot — and is three years ahead in estimated sales.

One of the most unusual shopping centers is being built in downtown Portland. In order to compete with suburban shopping developments the Lloyd Corporation bought 70 acres across the river from their former location (only a few blocks away) and will have $1,187,000 feet of rental space. It will include a hotel, medical building and office building — and provide parking for 7,000 cars.

Downtown stores in other big cities have been spurred by decentralization to enlist the aid of financiers and government agencies in gigantic improvement programs. Pittsburgh started off building of the Golden Triangle which practically made over the very heart of the downtown shopping area. San Francisco is spending $150,000,000 to make over six downtown blocks and Chicago will spend $288,000,000 to improve 147 acres near the downtown Loop district.

Studies are being made in Seattle of a plan to convert University Way into a mall-type shopping center — right downtown.

The trend in Southern California is not toward such huge shopping centers but more medium sized ones. Dozens are under construction and many more are being planned. Sears concentrates its expansion program in shopping centers which the chain owns — or in which they lease space. Other chains are going into shopping centers but also expanding in downtown locations.

Cameron Center, now under construction along the east side of South Palm Canyon Drive between Riverside and Mesquite, is the first shopping center to be built in the Desert Resort Area. The 15-acre site will provide parking for close to 1,000 cars. Improvement of South Palm Canyon to a four lane street with curbs will add greatly to the convenience of the location.

Eight months of research in plotting the arrangement of stores resulted in a departure from the usual shopping center plan. Designer William F. Cody, AIA, believes that Cameron Center will be unique in its grouping of stores and appropriate for this resort community. It will include a medical-dental and office building. The center is being built by George E. Cameron Enterprises and the first stores will be opened in the Fall.

Startling New Juvenile Delinquency Prescriptions
(Hemet News)

Dr. Ruth Alexander, editor and economist, tossed some startling ideas about juvenile delinquency at 4000 high school principals who met in Chicago the other day. Here, in three sentences, is her prescription for handling the problem:

End compulsory schooling.
Do away with child labor laws.
Segregate students by mental ability, not age.

Although the reaction of the educators was not stated in the press dispatches, we imagine Dr. Alexander made them a little uncomfortable. Her approach runs counter to the prevailing philosophy in education and the social sciences.

She believes that delinquency stems from boredom of secondary school misfits. They're not bad to begin with, but herded into contact with knowledge they neither want nor are mentally equipped to absorb, they become truants and eventually young criminals. Let them quit school and go to work, says Dr. Alexander, and they are more likely to become useful citizens.

While some of the principals may have been uncomfortable, many of them bear the scars of frontline encounters with the youthful troublemakers and know there is something in what Dr. Alexander says.

When high school is for everybody, standards must necessarily be low. Too much attention is paid to the sullen truant and troublemaker. He debases the school system until such time as automatic and undeserved promotion or coming of age spews him out into society.

The capable students are likely to become bored by the pace set for the dullards and fail to get the education they deserve. Separate classes for exceptionally bright students may be a partial solution but they don't help the average student.

The rebellious, bored dullard is often coddled in school and even more often in the juvenile court. If he develops a pretty contemptuous opinion of the adult world, that shouldn't be surprising. Dr. Alexander would take him out of school when it's obvious he doesn't belong there. She says what he really wants is a job, and he should have it. That's the one thing that can give him the self-respect and purpose he ought to have.

Since "universal education" has long been taken for granted in this country, Dr. Alexander's idea may be a little startling to some Americans.

But it should be borne in mind that she is not trying to place any child at a disadvantage. Rather her aim is to provide the kind of early training that will permit every American youngster to develop normally, adjust properly, and achieve the most rewarding life possible. Any proposal to that end, if seriously made by a qualified person, should be considered on its merits, no matter how radically it may depart from convention and custom.

Snowball from New Hampshire

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

THIS SIDE OF THE SUN
Ah, Gentle Spring arrived today
To spend a few weeks here.
And I'd suggest you also stay
Enjoy the best months here.

Note to Jimmy Cooper and other Chamber of Commerce officials, the Hotel and Apartment associations and to sundry and various business people in town—you can't say that I'm not trying. Well, anyway, Spring did arrive this morning at 7:21 (PST). I heard it but I don't know whether it was the crack of dawn, the arrival of Spring or one of those jets breaking the sound barrier. Probably a Marine husband frustrating his wife by traveling faster than sound.

IN PALM SPRINGS long-time residents love to say, anything can happen and you see everything. But even some of the old-timers were a bit nonplussed yesterday morning early and the WCTU and/or the AA could have reaped a rich harvest had they had representatives supplied with copies of The Pledge on Indian Avenue.

Many a Villager and visitor, weakened by the weekend, rushed for cover as they looked out on Indian Avenue and saw waddling down that thoroughfare: ELEPHANTS.

CLYDE BEATTY's circus played in town yesterday and the elephants did it on the hoof from their railway train at the Garnet siding to the show grounds. Down Indian Avenue to the consternation of motorists.

Traffic was backed up for two blocks even at that early hour as the pachyderms (I just had to use that word) turned off toward Sunrise Way.

Police, who patrolled the area and handled traffic, were really glad they had those white crash helmets.

One man, whose wife was driving him to his daily toil, covered his eyes with his hands and asked in a withered whisper: "What color are they, honey?" "Dirty gray," she replied. "Great, guess I won't quit, after all."

But Mr. Fred Weigel informs me the circus DOES have a pink elephant.

Maybe in Palm Springs it would be a good idea to keep that one off the streets. Our lounges bought their licenses and they have to live, don't they?

HAVE HEARD plenty of complaints about rude drivers so this tale told me by a Villager yesterday was a welcome change. Seems this lad and his wife took a long trip over the weekend in their six-year-old Ford and were coming home Monday morning when they ran out of gasoline at 5 a.m. at Sunrise Way and Tamarisk.

The sleepy husband took to the highway and unsuccessfully tried to flag down the infrequent cars at that time of the day. Finally a spic and span new Cadillac stopped and looked over the situation.

"I'll give you a push," the Cadillac driver said. The husband got between the cars and scrutinized the situation to see if the bumpers met.

"What are you waiting for?" asked the driver of the big new car.

"I want to see that everything is o.k. so you won't damage your grill," said the owner of the six-year-old smaller car. "My grill, hell," said the other. "Just see that I don't dent your car."

Dr. Benjamin Goldberg

PARKINSON'S DISEASE

Parkinson's Disease is a brain condition which was originally described by James Parkinson in 1817. So careful and brilliant was the study he made that not until 1952 was there any improved knowledge as to the exact cause of the condition, or a more specific way of dealing with it.

The condition starts with a peculiar mask-like expression in an individual. It is more common in men than in women. There is a slow or gradual onset, which may be regarded as psychoneurotic, or even rheumatic. This because a rigidity of the limbs and an abnormality of posture develops with a tremor or shaking of the extremities and sometimes of the head.

In the fingers this tremor assumes a rhythm which runs apparently in cycles of four to eight the second, with the thumb running over the third and fourth finger in a pill-rolling motion. As the matter progresses, a tapping of the foot on the floor may also occur.

Usually one side of the body is first affected, and later the condition extends to both sides. The disease itself occurs in the central nervous system, in what are known as the basal ganglia, found at the bottom of the brain. It also may occur following an acute encephalitis or sleeping sickness, with a resultant deterioration of cells on the surface of the brain. In this latter condition, an interval of 20 years may pass, after the sleeping sickness, before the Parkinson's syndrome develops.

SIMILAR MANIFESTATIONS have sometimes resulted from an injury to the brain, syphilis, brain tumor and poisoning from carbon monoxide, manganese, etc.

The most single cause of occurrence was following the influenza epidemic of 1918, where the flu was complicated by sleeping sickness or encephalitis. At that time there was an increase in the occurrence of the cases of Parkinson's disease to the extent of 9.5 times as many as previously had been seen.

Of the other manifestations that the patient portrays, difficulty in motion becomes the greatest. The patient has trouble speaking, writing and eating. He finds it difficult to shave or button his clothes. When he stands, he develops a center of gravity which is somewhat before him, so that he walks in a running, propulsive gait, trying as it were to catch up with himself. He cannot turn his head, nor does he swing his arms. The muscles are resistive to movement, and by that we mean somewhat rigid.

THE PATIENT is depressed and irritable, or he may appear as an impassive and relatively immobile object, with his personality as it were locked up. As very frequently happens in the discovery of something new in our life, an accidental observation resulted in improved treatment for this condition. A brain surgeon in the year of 1932, operating on a Parkinsonian patient, without intent blocked an important blood vessel, which was followed very quickly by the improvement of the paralysis and tremor on the other side of the body.

Repeating this intentionally in several other patients resulted in a similar improvement. However, only young individuals up to 60 seem to benefit from this new surgical approach. Other individuals must continue to have medication which has been developed to interfere and curtail nerve irritability of the hyper-tonic type which allows for the manifestations described above.

EARL WILSON:

'Toupee or Not Toupee'

NEW YORK—I'm a louse. Interviewing crooner Tony Bennett, I said, "Is there any connection between singers and early baldness?"

"Bing Crosby wears a rug," I pointed out, "and Frank Sinatra's getting thin, and then there's a your hairpiece—"

Tony, who's only 29, proved he can take it.

"Maybe there's some connection between singers and noses, too," he answered. "I've had movie offers, but they always said I had to get a nose job." I turned them down, although two singers I can think of—he probably meant Dean Martin and Vic Damone—did it and became matinee idols."

Tony prefers trying eventually for character roles; a very serious young man who studied the Stanislavsky acting method at the American Theater Wing, he'll be using it at the Copacabana when he sings "Lost in The Stars."

"When you're singing in a sad spot, you think of something very tragic that happened to you. I did and tears started flowing."

What did he think about? "I can't say. It's very personal."

This is the new Tony Bennett; a gifted and earnest fellow, likely to become more important on the American scene.

"Well," I said, closing up the greasy notebook, "I think I've got a piece."

"Here, take mine!" exclaimed Tony, reaching for his "rug."

"Too-shay," I said.

"No, too-pay!" howled Tony. Oh, we do get off some good ones now and then.

TV's WONDERFUL. Although Nanette Fabray just learned she's off Sid Caesar's show next year, comedienne Shirl Conway's friends say she knew before going to London to do "Plain and Fancy" that she's go-

Tony Martin, Marion Marlow, Giselle McKenzie and Mahalia Jackson have all been invited to sing on four networks for Mamie Eisenhower's big birthday anniversary next week. Mamie picket 'em herself.

ROBERT S. ALLEN:

Double-Barrelled Plan

WASHINGTON — A double-barrelled plan of action is what's behind that cryptic remark President Eisenhower made at his press conference about working late at night on the ominous Middle East crisis.

Following is what is transpiring behind-the-scenes on this war-threatening situation:

The U.S., Britain and France to sponsor a resolution in the U.N. Security Council that will (1) sternly warn the Arab states and Israel against starting a conflict, (2) urge both sides to withdraw their forces a specified distance from the inflamed borders, and (3) declare that military and economic sanctions will be invoked against aggression.

Congress to adopt a resolution strongly approving the 1950 declaration by the U.S., Britain and France of "unalterable opposition" to the use of force in the Middle East, and committing these three powers to "immediate" action to avert war there.

High-level discussions on these two moves have been in progress in Washington, London and Paris for several weeks. Certain key details still await agreement, particularly timing. That is vital in the Security Council.

Present chairman is Sir Pier-son Dixon, whose term expires this month. The chairman in April will be Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, who will be followed in May by the Yugoslav delegate. This means the Big Three have 40 days in which to press the momentous resolution in the Security Council while its important chairmanship is in their possession.

The timing of the congressional resolution is also undecided. That depends on what is determined regarding the U.N. resolution, and the attitude of congressional leaders, whose views are just beginning to be sought.

The reaction of the legislative chiefs is vital because Congress has never passed on the 1950 tripartite declaration.

This is due to the fact that it is not a formal treaty. In effect the declaration is an agreement between the U.S., Britain and France, but it is not a pact in the conventional sense. For that reason it has not been submitted to Congress for ratification.

The proposed resolution would amount to congressional ratification of the declaration.

Such approval is deemed essential "to put teeth" in the tripartite pronouncement. A recent precedent for this is the resolution overwhelmingly adopted by Congress in 1954 authorizing the President to take whatever measures he deems necessary to resist Red Chinese aggression in the Formosa area.

No Nostalgia for the Old Time Wash Tub and Churn

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY
NEW YORK — (AP) — Some of the nostalgia is missing at the National Antiques Show this year. Unless, of course, it is possible to find any woman who will become nostalgic at the sight of a wooden wash tub or a hand-pumped cleaner that is a combination of a churn, an automobile jack and a pogo stick.

The annual antiques show at Madison Square Garden keeps expanding to include memorabilia from more nations and knick knacks rescued from more attics. This year among the 300,000 items and 200 exhibits are two displays of household equipment dating back to 1806.

An antique technically is 100 years old or more, but in the field of household gadgets, even a brief 10 years turns an appliance into an antique in the eyes of most women.

So the sight of yesterday's "labor-saving" devices has so far brought only shudders and sighs of relief from women touring the antiques show.

The round wooden wash tub on display is dated 1806, and has a narrow, saw-toothed wooden washboard attached.

Life got brighter by 1889 and somebody painted a wondrous work-saving washer bright red. It was mechanical, so long as a woman's arm held out. A cradlelike basket fitted inside the wooden bowl. To wash the clothes a woman had to push and pull the basket across the curved, corrugated wooden surface. An elated advertising man named it the "Perfect" washer.

No wonder women didn't start playing bridge until the 20th century.

Lenten Sandwich

NEW YORK — (AP) — For a Lenten lunch treat, serve batter-dipped french toast sandwiches.

On each of 4 slices of rye bread place a slice of processed American cheese and sliced green olives. Top with the second slice of bread. Combine 1 beaten egg, 1 cup of milk and 1 cup of pancake mix in a shallow dish. Stir lightly until the batter is fairly smooth.

TEAM FISH WITH HERBS

NEW YORK — (AP) — Fish and basil form a delightful flavor team. Mix 1/2 teaspoon of crumbled whole basil to 1/4 cup of butter or margarine. Use to baste fish while it is broiling.

Dip the sandwiches, drain, and pan fry them until golden brown on both sides, turning only once. Serve immediately.

Annual St. Patrick's Party as Irish as Paddy's Pig

Gargantuan shamrocks decorated the pillars in El Mirador Room and clusters of green and white balloons dangled from the ceiling for the gala St. Patrick's Party Saturday night. The wrought iron light fixtures by the stage were transformed into giant harps and green and white streamers triangled out from the bandshell.

A wishing well was set up in the Starlight Patio and a real, live "Paddy's Pig" was a center of interest as numerous dinner groups gathered there for cocktails.

There was corned beef and cabbage and a glorified Irish stew on the dinner menu, but there was also breast of guinea hen for those intent on "living it up."

Joe Moshay's music made it a dancing crowd and, except during the program, the dance floor was crowded. An impromptu conga line formed when Tex Kidwell started singing "McNamara's Band." Tex sang a medley of Irish tunes, Caroline Gray also sang and Marty the Human Chimp performed. Conky and Wallace also entertained.

One of the largest dinner groups was the one hosted by the Sam Kraemers, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Packy Dee (it was her birthday).

At a nearby table, on the edge of the dance floor, the Roy Harlows were celebrating their wedding anniversary. They were with Elsinore Machris Gilliland, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brundage he's the sports announcer, and O. E. Meehan Jr. (CHP's No. 1 investigator).

Across the dance floor, were the Ed Rothbarts and the John Haskells (Dorothy Manners) at a table for four.

Mrs. Charles Becker had with her Mr. and Mrs. Mons Walgren (the former governor), and the Beckers' houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. William Sullivan (he's the dean of insurance commissioners in the United States), and Mrs. Marshall Bell of San Antonio, Texas.

In the gay crowd were the Bill Reichels, A. E. Youngs, Ralph Fitzgeralds, Ed Houghtons, Dr. and Mrs. John Costello, the Harold McAlisters, William Maloufs, John McClures, Tom Flemings, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Press, Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Morton of Seattle, the Harry Hymans of Laguna, the A. K. Bournes (he was chairman of the board for Singer Sewing Machine Company before he retired).

The Bill Bamermans hosted a party celebrating her birthday, as well as St. Patrick's Day. The Francis Whelans and Rudy Halm were in their party.

Most of the 300-some guests wore at least a touch of green and there was more than a sprinkling of green dresses in the room and there were green hats and green carnations and clay pipes for favors. Flowers, white stock and green carnations, centered each table.

Push-Button Awnings

CHICAGO — (AP) — A push button system has been developed for lowering and raising awnings. The control unit can be located in any part of the house and more than one set of awnings can be wired into the system. The improvement was demonstrated at the National Association of Home Builders convention.

Bold Contrast

NEW YORK — (AP) — Navy as usual is a top color for springs. But this year with a difference. It is more bold than lady-like. Traditionally navy is worn with demure white or pastel touches. But this spring it is fashionable to combine it with such colors as hot orange, pimento red and butter yellow. One caution: don't overdo the bold contrast. A navy suit might be worn with orange leather bag and shoes, but better let the hat and gloves be also of navy.

P-T Group Will Hear Educator

An outstanding program has been arranged for the regular meeting of Katherine Finchy Parent-Teacher Group, to be held this evening at 7:30 in the school cafeteria.

Dr. Robert Bartlett Haas, Ed.D., head of the education extension department at UCLA, will be the speaker and will show a film, "The Child in the Middle."

Haas, who is a leader in group dynamics, including role playing in the field of child development, is easily recognized in the new film "Role Playing," which is produced by the Theatre Arts at the University of California. It is based on some of his writings. In 1954 Dr. Haas presented a paper at the World Mental Hygiene conference in Toronto. He was exchange specialist to the city of Bremen, Germany, where he lectured and carried out community work. The State Department evaluated him as the most successful consultant sent to Bremen to date.

A question and answer period will follow his lecture. Because of the weighty content, this program is not recommended for children but all parents and other adults are invited to attend.

A major project of the P-T Group will be completed, when it presents a piano to the Katherine Finchy school, for use in programs and assemblies in the cafeteria.

Refreshments, following the program, will be in charge of Mrs. Betty Ekins.

Starch for Nylons

NEW YORK — (AP) — The home economics department for one starch manufacturer (Perma-starch) gives this laundry tip: add a teaspoon of plastic starch to the suds in which you wash nylon stockings. Rinse as usual. The manufacturer says the starch will provide a protective coating without affecting sheerness.

Houseguest is Honored

Spring flowers in pastel shades of pink and purple, yellow and white, decorated the luncheon table in the Racquet Club's Garden Room Friday, when Mrs. James Kemper entertained for her houseguest Mrs. Leigh Wade of Washington, D. C.

Guests, who gathered in the lounge for a pre-luncheon cocktail, included Mesdames Frederick McNear, Floyd Turner, Noble Banks, George Roberson, Henry Dollard, Paul Helms, Thomas Fleming, Grover Weyland, Hathaway Kemper, Henry Reid, William Malouf, Edward Calkins, Betty McCullough, Eldred Boland, Horace Armstrong, F. C. Dougherty, Reuben Fleet, William Bromstedt, Arthur Cleghorn and Richmond Ball.

Sunday Brunch is Fun Time

Musical foolery by Mickey Finn and Duke Mitchell amused the Sunday brunch crowd at the Palm Springs Ranch Club. Also pleasing the audience were the songs of Renee Renoir, Cuban songstress of "Guys and Dolls."

At the brunch, which is hosted each Sunday by Trav Rogers, was a group which included the Ed Houghtons, William Gargans, Tommy Soderberg. Others having fun were Mrs. William Perlberg and her guests Mr. and Mrs. Swedlow of Los Angeles, and John Haskell, Pancho Malter and family of Indio, came over for the brunch.

Easterners at Annino Home

Houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Annino of Sky Blue Water Estates, are Mrs. Josephine Annino, a sister-in-law, and her sister Mrs. Marie Vasquez, of Middletown, Connecticut. Mrs. Vasquez is owner and manager of Club Vasquez, one of Connecticut's better restaurants and entertainment theaters.

The two visitors are on an extended cross-continent, sightseeing tour, visiting friends and many places of interest all over the country. They plan to spend a few days at the Anninos' Summer home at Idyllwild, while they are here.

A teaspoon of lemon juice or vinegar helps retain the color of cauliflower, cabbage or beets during cooking.

Fords Host Party for Denverites

Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Ford of Denver, who are living in the Churchill house on San Lorenzo, were hosts at a Sunday night party at the Tennis Club, honoring their friends Mr. and Mrs. William Burkhardt and their daughter Dera, of Denver.

Among the 50 or 60 guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Milton Hicks, Ralph Singer, Joe Dyer and their houseguest, Mrs. Fred Newton of Denver, Sam Taylor, Mark Cramer, Dan Thornton, Dolph Oborgfel, M. O. Anderson, Lou Manseau, L. L. Oakes, Bill Tomberlin, Richard Long, S. P. Manasse, George Maston, S. L. Saidge, James Tuma, Mrs. Charles Becker.

To soften butter or margarine quickly, fill a bowl with boiling water, empty, and turn it upside down over the butter dish.

Helen Worth of New York and Palm Beach, Lee Anderson with Sid Richardson, Peggy Lester with Frank Harper.

The party danced late to the music of Tony Ruse's orchestra.

Grumpy Mornings? Here's the Reason

CHICAGO — (AP) — Paint the bedroom the color of your mood on arising.

The National Association of Bedding Manufacturers reports that if you're a cheerful, wideawake riser, you'll want bright colors—crisp yellow or white.

But if you naturally arise grumbly, the bright colors will only make things worse. Better stick to somber hues.

Around Town

with Mildy Crawford

Spring came to Palm Springs today... wearing Summer habiliments... and brought along a fancy wardrobe of party clothes... along with swim and golf wear...

As Easter draws near the social calendar is crowded... Tonight, of course, is the First Nighter dinner at Don the Beaconcomber... followed by Richard Arlen's opening in "Tender Trap" at the Playhouse... Tomorrow night is the big Republican $50-a-plate dinner at El Mirador... with former Governor Dan Thornton as the speaker... Thursday night is crowded... with the Flemings' big party at the Racquet Club... the Reuben Fleet party at Committee of Twenty Five... and the South Seas party being given by Elsa and Bill Bassichis and Gerri and Stuart Hopps... And Friday is a fashion show luncheon at the Ranch Club... with the weekend crowded with events.

Dorothy Gray and Harry Joe Brown had a warm sunny day Sunday-for the third in their series of Sunday brunches... The first two Sundays there was enough wind to disrupt the table settings... but this one was perfect... The sunny, walled garden of their house on Via Olivera was filled with people...

Finally caught up with Eve and Bill Brooks... after just missing them at a number of parties... and just in time, too, as they leave soon for Vancouver... Harriet and Arthur Little... just returned from a fabulous honeymoon trip... and she looking more beautiful than ever...

Nellis and Al Hunt and Molly (Parnis) and Leon Livingston (both the women looking very smart in shorts)... the Barney Hinkles and Gladys Dart... The Fernand Levals... Dorothy's houseguests who were leaving that night by train for their New York home... and none too happy about it...

Billie and Bob, Helen and Jack Kenaston... and Billie was telling about how she lost her handbag on the Las Vegas junket... She never did get the handbag nor the money returned... but she received a shoebox containing her driver's license and papers and children's pictures... her St. Christopher medal... and this is ironical, a claim check for a jeweled wristwatch that was at the jeweler for repairs...

Marcia and George Barrett (in shorts)... Joan and Frank Bering (she very smart in pink and white cotton, wearing a little round tie on hat with a curly antennae on top)... Vie and Bud Graves, Vicki and Billy Malouf, Win Becker, Elsa Bassichis... Alta Roberson, Helen Worth, Viva and Lester Selig, Jane and Russ Wade... Theodora and Tom Fleming, Dixie and Bill Tomberlin, Mrs. Stanley Bergerman and her houseguest Natalie Weiss of Shreveport... and more...

Former Villager William Levin is here on a vacation which combines business and pleasure. Mr. Levin, now a hotel operator in Long Beach and Los Angeles, is staying at the Rossmore.

Back from Hawaii

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stuart and children Maryjo and Joey of 32620 Sky Blue Waters Trail, went to Long Beach to greet Mrs. Stuart's parents, Captain and Mrs. James W. Landers, who were returning from three months in Hawaii.

The Landers live in Long Beach and Mrs. Landers is the former Mrs. Mary Whitehouse, who used to have a shop here in the Plaza.

Cowans Here for Easter Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cowan, who have been at their ranch near Santa Ana, arrived at their Via Lola home this past week. On Thursday evening they had Mr. and Mrs. Hanno Rysberg as their dinner guests at the Dunes, followed by bridge at the Cowan home.

The Cowans' daughter, Jewell, who is a student at Stephens College in Columbia, Missouri, will arrive this weekend to spend the Easter holidays.

Square Dancing

Square dance classes are being offered to children in the fourth through the sixth grades starting March 24, at 10 a.m., in the cafeteria of the Cahulla School. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hopp will conduct classes which will be held twice a month. This is open to children of all schools in this age group.

Two Birthdays

A small dinner party given by the Hy Finermans at the Ranch Club on Friday night, was a double birthday celebration for Mrs. Finerman and for Estelle Schiller.

Others in the party were the Finerman's children, Barbara and Richard, and Mrs. Finerman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Siegel.

Cal Tribble has returned to Thunderbird from Chicago, and his wife and two sons will join him there on Friday.

Passover Recipes

Recipes for the Passover and for the Seiter Community celebration were the topic for discussion this afternoon when the Palm Springs Jewish Women's Group Sisterhood met at the Jewish Community Center, with chairman Mrs. Saul Ruskin presiding.

Mrs. Leon Rosenberg, family education chairman, told how to prepare the traditional dishes and the women present exchanged favorite recipes.

Resort Styles Worn by Both Models and Luncheon Crowd

Resort Fashions were shown in a smart sun-splashed setting on the terrace of Oasis Hotel Saturday noon with styles all custom made by Andree of California. As the colorful models walked between tables on the terrace and in the dining room, it was difficult to tell which were the models and which the spectators as both were so brightly dressed in Palm Springs clothes.

Among the outstanding apparel shown was a rainbow-colored pavilion beach coat with full back and mandarin collar, modeled by Jo Saunders. A two-piece outfit, worn by Roberta Dady and Dick Hill, featured a three-piece sports outfit in a novelty nautical signal print. It had matching shorts and shirt for both, and featured a light-weight carrying case for damp bathing suit or accessories.

One of the hits of the show was a fine cotton men's robe with a walnut design of beige on a black ground, with a matching shirt worn by Curtis Alexander.

Vibrant tones of orange, red and brown were combined in a two-piece Italian inspired shirt, and soft box-pleated skirt in a little fish design, worn by Ruth Henderson. She carried a linen hand-blocked sun parasol.

Joanne Flynn swept in wearing a brown light-weight wool great coat with rounded stand up collar over a brown and black pure silk walnut print dress. A Charcoal palm print in a two-piece casual dress was worn by Michelle Ailor, which featured a full-gathered skirt and sleeveless tailored blouse.

Highlight of the show was a "Symphony in Blue" outfit worn by Roberta Dady, which combined a coat and dress ensemble. The coat of French Rodier fabric with a tremendous full back and rounded stand-up collar. Under the coat she wore a matching dinner dress in pure silk with a starfish design in varied shades of ocean blue.

The fashion show was commented by Jane De Vivier, and all models were local Palm Springs residents, and all styles were from Andree, of California, located in the Plaza.

Trumpet player Ziggy Ellman, of "And the Angels Sing" fame, left Palm Springs Thursday after spending several days here with his wife, resting at the Rossmore hotel.

Charity Auction April 8

The third annual charity auction, formerly sponsored by the Wednesday night Club, will be sponsored this year jointly by the Jewish Community Center and the P. S. Jewish Womens Group, and as in former years Max Grone will act as Auctioneer. It will be held April 8 at the Wars Memorial hall. The interest already shown by the residents and merchants of Palm Springs indicates a very successful event.

Co-chairmen of the Auction committee are Mrs. Zach Pitts and Abe Schartz and they will be glad to arrange for pick-ups of any items old or new. They can be called at 2185 or 5262.

The P. S. Jewish Womens Group contributes regularly to many worthy local causes in addition to National organizations such as Red Cross, Community Chest, Girl Scouts, City of Hope and others.

You, too, can participate by looking in your spare rooms and garages for merchandise that is of no use to you but can be to someone else.

Sanborns Celebrate Anniversary

Celebrating their 35th wedding anniversary Saturday night, Councilman and Mrs. Gerald Sanborn entertained 35 guests at cocktails at their home at 172 East Racquet Club Road, preceding dinner at the Ranch Club.

Out-of-town guests included their son and daughter-in-law the John Sanborns of Riverside. Chief and Mrs. J. A. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Dauchy, also of Riverside, Sherman Hastings of Milton, Kansas, Mrs. Sanborn's sister, Mrs. Ruth Blanchard of Lawrence, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Merriam of Holland, Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wallace and Mrs. Charles Powers of Grand Rapids, Michigan, Mrs. Ann Sumner of Beaumont, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lineau of San Bernardino.

Palm Springs guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Maynard Groth, Lou Billington, Sam Janis, John Holditch, Chester Sproule, Ted Griffith, Chief and Mrs. August Kettmann, Mrs. Marvin Sale, Miss Angela Brennan, Bill Bryan.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Strand of Youngstown, Pennsylvania, stopped at the Dr. Milford Beebe home Friday, on their way to Pasadena. After visiting relatives in the metropolitan area, the Strands will return to Palm Springs for an extended visit with the Beebes.

Sisters Give St. Patrick Luncheon Party

Mrs. Hortense Murray and her sister Mrs. John Coleman were the hostesses at a St. Patrick's Day luncheon at the Tennis Club. This has long been an annual event for the sisters as it is on their mother's birthday.

The luncheon table was like a breath of Spring, covered with freshly-cut sweet peas in pastel shades. A large green "Paddy's" hat was the centerpiece and stood on a silver stand surrounded by shamrocks. Shamrocks also marked the place cards.

Among those in attendance were Mesdames. William McBride, Carl Betcher, Ed Robbin, Beatrice Manson, Bertha Simon, Harold Bingham, Lynn Briggs, Lucille Weiss, Molly Claude Johnson, Harry Clatworthy, Helen Vaness, Margaret Gibson of Honolulu, Hanna Weltz of Los Angeles.

St. Patrick's Celebration at Ranch Club

In the Saturday night crowd at the Ranch Club, celebrating St. Patrick's Day, were Major-General and Mrs. Nowland of San Raphael, who stopped in for dinner.

A twosome were Nora Flynn Haymes and Jack Erlich, and Peggy Lester was there with Mr. and Mrs. Alan Dale.

The Florian Boyds were a foursome with the Fred Ingrams. In another party were the George Gruskins (he's the TV director and she is Florence Halop, who plays Millie's mother in "Meet Millie"), producer and Mrs. Irving Brecher of Los Angeles, and the Morris Rosenthals (he's the New York attorney.)

This is an imaginary fish that I made up to give myself an excuse for committing a terrible pun. Not so. It happens that this fish is a mutation and it has its odd markings because its Mother was frightened by a Steinway when she swam through the orchestra pit while rehearsing for a part in an Esther Williams picture. Far from being depressed this fish is actually very snobbish. He lives off the Florida Keys and won't go anywhere unless he's accompanied by a Fiddler Crab and he has hopes of some day learning to collapse himself up like a little accordion so he can be called a "concer-tuna." (I put that in to prove that the original pun wasn't as bad as you thought).

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

NEW YORK — Sunk in a snow-bank on the first day of spring, Fearless Fraley would like to advise you today that once again this year it will be the Dodgers and Yankees in the World Series.

Before you start throwing rocks packed in snowballs I'd like you to know this didn't come easy. At no time did I permit myself to be influenced by sunshine, palm trees, enthusiastic managers or rookies labeled as "new" Ty Cobbs or "modern" Babe Ruths.

This soothsaying, forsooth, was done in a hastily-constructed igloo on the pitcher's mound at Yankee Stadium while the Coney Island snow bird club was practicing the giant slalom from the upper deck.

None of it, if you get the "draft," is guaranteed.

FOR THAT REASON alone the other seven clubs in each league probably will insist on playing out the season. But just so they know how much effort to put out, this man, is how they'll finish around about next football season:

American League: 1. Yankees; 2. Boston; 3. Cleveland; 4. Chicago; 5. Detroit; 6. Washington; 7. Kansas City; 8. Baltimore.

National League: 1. Brooklyn; 2. Milwaukee; 3. St. Louis; 4. Philadelphia; 5. Cincinnati; 6. New York; 7. Chicago; 8. Pittsburgh.

The Yankees figure to have a tougher time than the "world" champions from Brooklyn simply because it looks like a one-team race in the National League and a five-team scramble in the American.

THE YANKEES will have a rough time disposing of the Red Sox, Indians, White Sox and Tigers as each league comes up with three divisions. Washington composes the second division in the A.L. with the "third" division composed of Kansas City, which still is in Missouri, and Baltimore, which still is in Maryland.

Brooklyn, despite all the premature weeping about advancing age, still stands in a National League class by itself.

COMPOSING THE second division are Milwaukee, which still lacks the needed fire; St. Louis, which "discovers" that everything with big ears isn't a pitcher; the lacking Phillies; the pitch poor Redlegs and the Giants, great in "Mays" but short come September.

In the "third" division, just a sacrifice bunt above the International League, are the Cubs and Pirates. Their chief role seems one destined to prove that Chicago still is in Illinois and Pittsburgh still is in Pennsylvania.

With both states fighting like mad to prove it ain't necessarily so.

So now, all you double play dilettantes down yonder can come home and get this thing started. And be sure to bring your snowshoes. Skiers up!

Indian Netters Host Banning Hi in League Meet

Palm Springs high school tennis teams, which started the defense of their Riverside County League net crown successfully last week when boys' and girls' teams won by identical scores over Coachella high—5 to 4—go into action on the home courts today.

They meeting Banning high in the second league match of the season.

Gary Waters has been starring for the Indian netters to date.

Ward Cracks Course Mark in Invitational

Finishes Six Under Previous Record; Dr. Taylor Second

Harvie Ward, United States amateur golf champion and former British amateur title holder, demonstrated why he was that good at O'Donnell Golf Club in the 21st annual Men's Invitational tournament.

He won the event with a 54-hole total of 193, six under the course record which he and Dr. Frank M. (Bud) Taylor, state amateur champion, shared last year.

DR. TAYLOR, whose quest for a fourth O'Donnell title was frustrated, was second. He also broke the record he and Ward tied last year, with a 198.

Ward's victory was his second at O'Donnell. He won in 1954. Dr. Taylor won in 1936, the first O'Donnell Invitational, again in 1952 and last year.

Third in the event was Tal Smith of Alameda with a 199, to equal the old record and fourth was Johnny Dawson of Thunderbird and Palm Springs with an even 200.

WARD STARTED the second 18 Saturday two behind and was that much behind at the start of the final 18.

Sunday's play was all Ward and Dr. Taylor, the two pre-tourney favorites. When Dr. Taylor drove out of bounds on the fourth, Ward took a five-stroke lead and it was never close after that.

Dr. Taylor was out in 35 to Ward's 30 but came back with a 32 to Ward's 34.

Ward had rounds of 65-64-67.

FINAL 54-HOLE scores for the 21st tourney follow:

- 193—Harvie Ward, 65-64-64.
- 198—Dr. Bud Taylor, 67-64-67.
- 199—Tal Smith, 68-66-65.

At the Training Camps

By UNITED PRESS
DELAND, Fla. — The San Francisco Seals defeated Mobile of the Southern Association, 12-11, yesterday for their sixth victory in eight exhibition baseball games.

Shortstop Pumpsie Green smashed a two-run homer in the eighth inning to give the PCLers the win. Catchers Nini Tornay of the Seals was hit on the head by a pitched ball in the second inning and was sidelined for the rest of the game.

FULLERTON — The Vancouver Mounties, after defeating Sacramento, 5-1, were slated to travel to Palm Springs today to tangle with San Diego in another exhibition game.

Willis Jordan went the full nine innings against Sacramento in yesterday's game and allowed only four hits. It was the Mounties' first exhibition game victory.

GLENDAL — Rookie pitchers Leroy Han, Berlyn Hodges and Dave Gray were slated to hurl for Portland in today's exhibition game with Seattle.

Portland Manager Tommy Holmes put his charges through a rigorous four and a half hour workout yesterday, including two-hour batting practice.

ANAHEIM — The Hollywood Stars go to Pasadena today for an exhibition game with the Sacramento Solons. Manager Clay Hopper named three rookies for the mound—Clarence Churn, Don Corella and Benny Daniels.

The Stars staged an eight inning intra-squad game yesterday with the Gilhouse defeating the Fontaines, 3-1.

LOS ANGELES — First baseman Dan Lobitz slammed a ninth inning homer yesterday to give the Los Angeles Angels a hard-fought 5-3 win over the University of Southern California.

The round-tripper by Lobitz broke a 3-3 tie. In the bottom of the ninth the Trojans loaded the bases but Bud Pritchard grounded out to end the game.

SAN BERNARDINO — The Seattle Rainiers will journey to Glendale, Calif., today for an exhibition game against the Portland Beavers.

Cal Humphreys, Roy Pardue and Howie Judson were slated to do mound chores for the Rainiers. Manager Luke Sewell worked his pitchers yesterday in fielding bunts. The rest of the three-hour drill was devoted to batting practice.

Shatters O'Donnell Record

NEW O'DONNELL champion, Harvie Ward, left, is congratulated by his record-breaking win, six strokes under course record and 17 under par, after the weekend's 21st Invitational. Dad French, chairman of the three-event tournament, offers the glad hand. Ward won two years ago, tied at 199 strokes with Bud Taylor last year, and then lost in a playoff. (Gayle photo)

Yankees Again Look Like Team to Beat in AL Race

By FRED DOWN

United Press Sports Writer
The New York Yankees are looking it over the Grapefruit League today and they're liable to be doing the same thing to the American League this Summer if Don Larsen and Mickey Mantle continue their Spring paces.

Larsen, who's turned in his joke book this Spring in favor of coach Jim Turner's black book on the hitters, hurled five brilliant innings in Monday's 11-1 rout of the Milwaukee Braves while Mantle weighed into the Yankees 18-hit attack with three hits in four tries.

Larsen, who yielded only one hit Monday, now has pitched eight scoreless innings this Spring while Mantle is batting .490 with 12 hits in 25 trips to the plate.

AS A RESULT, the Yankees have taken over the Grapefruit League lead with a record of eight triumphs and only two defeats. The Yankees were able to take over the Citrus League lead when the Chicago Cubs rallied for six runs in the ninth inning to snap the Cleveland Indians' seven-game winning spurt with a 9-5 verdict.

The Cubs were held to one hit—a three-run homer by Ernie Banks—for eight innings by Bob Feller and Cal McLish but Frank Kellert, Monte Irvin and Bob McKee all homered in the big ninth.

TED KLUSZEWSKI, ailing first baseman, made his Spring debut for the Cincinnati Redlegs Monday but had to bow out of the game.

P.S. Swimmers Compete in CIF Invitational Today

By JOHN SIMON

Hoping for a creditable showing, the Palm Springs aquatic squad journeyed to Redlands today to participate in the CIF invitational.

The Indians will be competing against eleven schools from the surrounding area. The swimmers with the six best times and the first six divers will enter the finals against swimmers from three other districts on Thursday.

The event will give the Indian individual stars a chance to prove themselves. Last year Jerry Greenfield won the 50 yard breaststroke after only two innings although his teammates went on to beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-2. The Redlegs were aided by seven walks in the first two innings and the Pirates averted a shutout on Dale Long's two-run homer.

Roy Sievers drove in three runs to lead the Washington Senators to an 8-6 win over the Boston Red Sox despite a grand slam homer by infielder Billy Consolo.

Rookie outfielder Jim Pisoni hit two homers and Tito Francona one to spark the Baltimore Orioles to an 8-6 victory over the New York Giants. It was the fourth straight loss for the Giants, who opened their Grapefruit League season with four consecutive wins.

RICHELIE ASHBURN scored from first base with the aid of an error by Ken Boyer to give the Philadelphia Phillies a 4-3 win over the St. Louis Cardinals. Ashburn raced to third on Marv Blaylock's seventh-inning single and continued home when Boyer fumbled the relay from the outfield.

The Detroit Tigers pounded out 16 hits, including a homer by Harvey Kuenn Monday night but dropped a 13-10 decision to the world champion Brooklyn Dodgers. The Dodgers made the most of 13 hits and 10 walks to record their fourth win in 10 starts. Frank Lary, who started gave up only four hits and four runs in three innings but Roy Tiefenauer, Jim Bunning and Joe Coleman who followed were pounded.

as a C and was proclaimed CIF champion. This year he has been swimming varsity although still a C, and has been out of his class.

John Cunningham has yet to lose the 50 yard freestyle and hopes to do well in that event as well as the diving.

Another big Indian threat is Doug Hunt, who recently set a new school record in the individual medley. Hunt is also a top back-stroker.

Coach Wayland Reynolds stated that although the event is very important, the main CIF finals will be held toward the end of the year.

Padres Host Major Club at Polo Grounds

Angels Scheduled For Thursday In Next Home Game

San Diego's Padres, with a 2-2 record in spring training games to date, spent the day yesterday in practice and an intra-squad game and today are meeting Vancouver Mounties at the Polo Grounds.

Tomorrow they go to Anaheim to meet the Hollywood Stars and Thursday return to the Polo Grounds where the Los Angeles Angels are scheduled to play.

Meanwhile the Padres announced that Shortstop Bob Dainoff is retiring from baseball and will not report to the club. Dainoff informed General Manager Ralph Kiner he did not wish to leave his home town.

FRIDAY, Manager Bob Elliott takes his Padres to San Bernardino for a third game with Seattle and the climax to the week comes on Saturday and Sunday.

On those two days the Cleveland Indians come to the Polo Grounds for two games with the Padres. One of the largest gatherings of local and surrounding city fans is expected to pack the Polo Grounds for those two contests.

The Indians humbled the New York Giants twice in their only other appearance in Southern California last Saturday and Sunday.

THE PADRES, in the meantime, defeated Vancouver at Fullerton last Saturday in a wild free-hitting game, 15 to 11 and bowed to the Portland Beavers here Sunday, 2 to 3. So far, San Diego has won both of its games on the road—and lost both of its games at the Polo Grounds.

General Manager Ralph Kiner of San Diego, who was with the Cleveland Indians last year, Manager Bob Elliott and Recreation Supervisor Howard Haddock, expect a record crowd out for the weekend games with the Indians.

Budsey Wins JC Tourney

Jay Budsey, whose best shot rolled within 3/4 inches of the cup, won the third annual Junior Chamber of Commerce Hole-in-One tournament at Pat Martin's driving range over the weekend.

He walked away with the trophy and $100 first prize.

A scant inch back was Marty Colburn whose best shot came to rest just 4 1/4 inches from the cup. A large field of Jaycee members and the general public swatted the little white pellets in an effort to drop one in in one or come closest.

Bruin Golfers Win

LOS ANGELES — The UCLA golf team scored a 28-26 victory over San Diego State Monday in a series of matches played over the Rancho Golf Course.

Low man for UCLA was Phil Miller with 75. Marvin Bradcock was low for San Diego with 76.

CHARLEY JORDAN, Indian basketball star, named for honors by the CIF Athletic Board.

Jordan Given Top Honor by Helms Board

Charles Jordan, outstanding offensive and defensive center for Palm Springs High school's Riverside County League basketball champions, was named top player among schools playing in the northern and southern Sections of the California Interscholastic Federation for the 1956 basketball season. The selection was made at the 19th annual meeting of the All-Southern California Board of Athletics at Helms Hall in Los Angeles.

He was named center on the All-CIF team by the board. Boasting a 23.8 average for 20 ball games, Jordan is considered one of the finest players to ever perform in the Riverside County League. Standing over 6 feet 4 inches in height, Jordan was Palm Springs' top performer and scorer.

His coach, Ralph Watt, says of Jordan: "An outstanding boy, both offensively and defensively." A senior, Jordan has many colleges and universities interested in him. The Nineteenth Annual All-Southern California Board of Basketball Awards program will be held at Helms Hall Saturday, March 31, at 10:30 a.m. At this time Jordan and the honored players will receive special Helms scroll awards and coaches John Kovac of Coronado and William Bonall of St. Monica's will be presented with special awards for having coached their teams to sectional championships in 1956.

SC Win Streak Facing Threat

LOS ANGELES — The University of Southern California track team may lose its first meet since 1948 in Saturday's quadrangular meet at Memorial Coliseum, says an SC spokesman.

SC will host the strong San Diego Navy, Los Angeles Athletic Club and San Diego State.

H. D. Thoreau, director of SC publicity, told the Southern California Track Writers Assn. Tuesday that the Navy, led by ex-Trojan Jack Davis, would go all out and try to break SC's win streak.

The bluejackets, he said, were strong in every event but the pole vault.

Dons Going Into National Finals Without Worry

SAN FRANCISCO — The pressure of carrying a 53-game winning streak isn't bothering the University of San Francisco Don cagers in the least, Coach Phil Woolpert said today.

"We have no more pressure apparent now than we did at this time last year," said Woolpert. "We were being pointed for then and we are being pointed for now."

"But this year we are the champions and it is up to them to knock us off."

WOOLPERT said his team would get one final working in today before leaving for Evanston, Ill., where the Dons will tangle with Southern Methodist in the semifinals of the NCAA championships at Northwestern University.

"We all are in good shape," he said, "Big Bill Russell has a slight finger sprain, and guard Gene Brown has some blisters on his feet, but they will be in tip-top condition for the play-offs."

The youthful Don coach is somewhat irked at those who claim his club played a "patsy" schedule.

"EVENTS WILL PROVE that we played a representative schedule," he said. "No matter what conference, it is hard to go through it without a defeat. On top of that, we won two tournaments on the road during December. You can get beat by a high school's girl team in one of those tourneys." Besides winning all their games in the California Basketball Association, the Dons whipped such teams as champion UCLA twice, California and Southern California from the Pacific Coast Conference and a cross-section of the country that included LaSalle, DePaul and Marquette in the Midwest; Wichita in the Southwest; Loyola of New Orleans in the South; and Utah of the Rocky Mountain Conference.

Ahead are Southern Methodist and, if the Dons win that one, either Iowa of the Big Ten, or Temple in the finals.

Farm Bill Veto Seen by Knowland

GOP Leaders Meet With Eisenhower On Supports Setback

WASHINGTON — Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland of California predicted after a White House conference today that President Eisenhower will veto the Senate passed farm bill unless it is "modified" by a Senate-House Conference Committee.

Knowland and other GOP legislative leaders discussed the farm bill with Mr. Eisenhower at their weekly legislative conference today. Senate Democrats meanwhile boasted that they had won a "back door" victory over the administration in the fight over high price supports in the farm measure.

ADMINISTRATION forces until last night had been successful in beating back Democratic efforts to replace flexible price supports with high rigid supports. But Democrats at the last minute pushed through an amendment designed to lift sharply the present support price floor of 75 per cent of parity for corn, cotton and wheat.

The Senate then went on to pass, 93 to 2, the catch-all farm bill that would increase farmers' election year income by hundreds of millions of dollars. The bill now goes to the House, which may send it to a joint conference committee for further rewriting.

Knowland said that "everyone, including the President" expressed hope at the White House meeting that the conference committee "may modify the bill."

"It is unworkable in its present form," said Knowland.

Other congressional news:

ELECTORAL: Senators predicted the Senate will pass a proposed constitutional amendment reducing the chances of a minority electing a president. The amendment—called up for Senate debate—would change the method of tallying votes in the Electoral College.

FOREIGN AID: The House Foreign Affairs Committee called acting Secretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr. to question him on the administration's $4.86 billion foreign aid bill. Committee Chairman James P. Richards (D-SC) said after the President sent the bill to Congress Monday: "That's too much."

ATOMIC: Atomic scientist Ralph E. Lapp warned thousands of square miles might have to be abandoned "for several years because of fallout from a single H-bomb. Lapp issued the warning in testimony prepared for the House Civil Defense Subcommittee.

LIVERIGHT: Chairman James O. Eastland of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee said he will recommend citing a New Orleans broadcaster for contempt. Herman Liveright, TV program director of WDSU of New Orleans, refused to tell the subcommittee whether he is a Communist. He said the subcommittee had no authority to question him on his political beliefs.

HIGHWAYS: The Senate passed a bill increasing from $10 million to $30 million the amount of money available in fiscal 1957 for emergency highway repair work. The bill was sent to the White House.

Bad-Check Case Continued Week

Je Ann Kingsley, a 38-year-old Village hotel clerk, today asked through her newly-appointed public defender that Superior Court hearing of a bad check charge be continued for a week, and her request was granted.

The defendant, who was arrested here on a Riverside warrant charging she had floated two bad checks totalling more than $150 there, was found later to have cashed more than $600 worth of checks in Palm Springs.

She is in custody in lieu of $1500 bail. She admitted charges before a Municipal Court hearing yesterday, and was bound over to Superior Court arraignment. Her attorney is Maurice Sherrill.

SANTOS DE JESUS, left, presents Mr. and Mrs. Monte Herbert (he was Riverside county Heart Fund chairman) with proceeds from Deep Well's Wishing Well. The total donated was $91.37, and Yolanda D. Markson, owner, contributed an equal amount, making the over-all donation $182.74. (Desert Sun photo)

Phone Service Hearings Here to Last 2 Days

California Public Utilities Commission will hold public hearings on telephone service in this area April 2 and 3, starting at 10 a.m. in the city council chambers, rather than one day only.

The hearings are termed "initial" sessions to investigate whether the public interest requires the establishment of extended telephone service in the Palm Springs-Coachella exchange areas, and to determine whether the service, operations, rules, practices and facilities in the areas are improper or inadequate.

Persons who have specific complaints are asked to send them to the Chambers of Commerce in Palm Springs, Palm Desert, Rancho Mirage or Cathedral City. Staff engineers from the commission have been investigating the service and rate treatment of the three companies in the area (California Water and Telephone, Coachella Valley Home Telephone and Telegraph Company, and Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company which furnishes toll telephone service) since last September.

The study will not be completed by the time of the public hearings in April, and further hearings on the report will be held later.

Paralyzed East Fights Way Out of Record Drifts

NEW YORK —Thirty million persons today fought their way out of a paralyzing snowstorm that affected their jobs, schools, transportation, and their economy.

At least 127 were dead from Maine to West Virginia in the spring storm which dumped up to 21 inches of snow on 14 states.

New York City, buried under 14 inches of snow, was the hardest hit.

TODAY, 12 HOURS after the snowfall had stopped, its massive transportation system remained crippled, many of its businesses were idle, schools were closed and hundreds of miles of streets were blocked.

The Weather Bureau announced that spring would arrive officially at 10:21 a.m. EST today but first-day-of-spring temperatures were not expected to melt much of the deep snow covering.

The Commerce and Industry Board estimated the snow had already cost New York City businesses $150 million. Many firms closed or operated only a few hours Monday. Only slightly better conditions were predicted for today.

Some 33 per cent of New York workers who commute to their jobs from scores of suburbs were unable to fight their way through snowdrifts or find adequate transportation.

NEARLY EVERY school in the affected east coast area was closed. All New York and New Jersey schools in the snowbelt were ordered closed until further notice.

The effects of the storm—the worst in eight years—reached into the lives of nearly every one of the 30,000,000 persons in the stricken area.

City streets and highways in the heavily populated areas of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut and lower New Hampshire were almost deserted except for the workers who struggled to clear driving and walking lanes.

In most of the rest of the country, however, the weather really felt like spring. There was hardly any snow or rain and temperatures rose 10 to 15 degrees over the plains and Northern Mississippi Valley.

The famed swallows of Capistrano, who don't pay much attention to springtime calendars, were at least on schedule. They arrived at the San Juan Capistrano, Calif., Mission on St. Joseph's Day Monday, exactly as they have done for 142 years.

Power Socket Stuns Electrical Worker

Lavern Van Lieu, 29, Redlands, suffered only shock this morning when a 220-volt electrical charge passed through his body while he was plugging in a light socket on a construction job.

The victim was unable to let loose of the socket, and he lost consciousness for several minutes.

He was given emergency treatment at Desert Hospital, where after being given a sedative he was told to rest the remainder of the day.

L. E. McLaughlin, Village Leader; Dies in Hospital

Leonard E. "Mac" McLaughlin, 54, leading Palm Springs businessman and owner of McLaughlin Electric, died early yesterday morning at Desert Hospital. Cause of his death has not yet been determined. He had been ill frequently during the past few years.

McLaughlin was active in local organizations, being a Mason, a Shriner, a veteran of World War I and active in the American Legion and Sunshine Barracks.

A native of Hazel, North Dakota, he had been a resident in Palm Springs 11 years.

He is survived by his wife, Imogene; two daughters, Marlene McLaughlin of Palm Springs and Mrs. June Bourke of Lewiston, Montana; his mother, Mrs. Susan Knoff of Mankato, Minnesota; and a sister, Lola Nichols of Colton, California.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m., Thursday, from the Wielefs & Son Chapel with the Masonic Lodge officiating. Interment will be in the Palm Springs cemetery, with Wielefs and Son Mortuary in charge.

Council Insists Sewer Needs Require Bonds

The financing of sewers here, on a future-needs basis, is too big for anything but a bond issue, city council agreed yesterday. About $3,000,000 will be needed to pay for the project, and in spite of the voters' recent rejection of the bond issue, the need is still present, and population and use growth has only reinforced the council's feeling.

The sewer item was considered after sewer connection fee reduction was presented for discussion to council yesterday regarding the Vista Cielo assessment district.

Council last week tabled a formal motion to grant a $25 fee reduction to members of that district who put in extra piping directly to the disposal plant at their own expense.

They also paid for part of a pumping station, and council had informally agreed to grant the $25 reduction. After further reports and discussion yesterday, it was felt that a $10 reduction was more just. No formal action was taken.

They said that the plan upon which the last bond issue was based is the only way to get sewers ultimately necessary and one member indicated his feelings when he said we "gotta get 'em."
